

OREGON POETS, OREGON HISTORY

A Reflection on Social Justice in World War II

Lawson Fusao Inada

Join us in honoring
Oregon's Beloved Poet
William Stafford
and the Oregon Reads 2009 commemoration of
Oregon's 150th Birthday

William Stafford

Lawson Fusao Inada, Oregon Poet Laureate, will read from Legends from Camp, poems about his family's internment

Paul Merchant, William Stafford Archivist at Lewis & Clark College, will read from Stafford's work from conscientious objector camps

Bear witness to Stubborn Twig by Lauren Kessler, Oregon Reads 2009 selection that describes the internment of Oregon's Yasui family

Bring your favorite William Stafford poem to share!

Sunday, January 11, 2009

2 pm to 4 pm

Beaverton City Library, Auditorium

12375 S.W. 5th Street, Beaverton, OR 97005
(503) 644-2197 www.beavertonlibrary.org

Free Admission

*Co-sponsored by the Friends of William Stafford and the Beaverton City Library

